Description:

Review "Everyone is on a spiritual journey but David Bennett is on the roller coaster ride of a journey and and with Spirit. Totally engaging in candor and truth, totally inspiring in the outcomes of the struggles. Voyage of Purpose is the real deal." □Howard Storm, author, My Descent into Death: A Second Chance at Life

"A raw and honest travelogue of a man. . . . What he went through is the stuff of miracles; what he learned along the way is a message for all of us - about spirituality, purpose, and the reality of unconditional love." □P.M.H. Atwater, LHD, author, Near-Death Experiences: The Rest of the Story

"Exceptionally beautiful and well-written . . . David's experience is dramatic, as is his cure from what should have been a fatal cancer. . . . [Voyage of Purpose] exudes an abundance of wisdom." □Dr. Jeffrey Long, radiation oncologist and nationally recognized expert

"A remarkable account of Bennett's journey to find meaning in repeated brushes with death. . . . More than a guide to spiritual growth, this is a riveting story of one survivor's odyssey to chart his own voyage through setbacks into a life of meaning." □Bruce Greyson, MD, Carlson professor of Psychiatry & Neurobehavioral Sciences, coauthor of The Handbook of Near-Death Experiences

"Voyage of Purpose is an inspirational book that prompts one's curiosity, sense of validation, open-heartedness and peace of mind. Your soul will thank you for reading it." □Kimberly Clark Sharp, MSW, LICSW, author of After the Light, President of Seattle International Association for Near-Death Studies
