Description:

From the Back Cover Surefire recipes to nourish your children's faith You make sure your children get the proper food they need to grow physically. But are you providing a healthy spiritual diet to grow their hearts for God and others? Now you can give them both with these family devotions for mealtime dished up by John Avery Whittaker, Adventures in Odyssey's friendly mentor. Pass the fun around the table with 90 five-course devotional menus. Each one includes:

- Mealtime Prayer— a fresh way to bless your food
- Appetizer—a fun question or activity
- Main Course—an object lesson or thought to chew on
- Table Talk—questions to spark interesting discussions
- Vitamins and Minerals—a creative way to thank God for your time together or a reminder that God provides all we need

These devotions can be gobbled up at any meal in any place. Start your children's day with a bowl of cereal and a story that teaches biblical truth. Or keep a copy of Whit's End Mealtime Devotions in your car to use during picnics or fast-food stops. At holidays, use one of the special-occasion devotions or create your own memorable meals by using one of the fun theme devotions. Whenever your family gathers for a meal, look to Whit's End Mealtime Devotions to help nurture a thriving faith in your children.
